

Sabha's founder secretary Sarat Chandra Goswami remembered

Asam Sahitya Sabha's founder general secretary Sarat Chandra Goswami's death anniversary was held in all the district and branch offices including at the premises of the Guwahati administrative office in Bhagawatiprasad Barua Bhawan on December 19. The said tribute function was organised as Sabha's central programme with its vice president Smti Mrinalini Devi as the chief guest who began the programme by lighting the lamp and paying floral tribute in front of the portrait of Sarat Chandra Goswami.

In her speech, Smti Mrinalini Devi appealed to the young generation of Assam to follow the ideals of Sarat Chandra Goswami who was man of tremendous work culture. "It was because of his almost single-handed efforts that the Sabha's base became strong and solid. But unfortunately Sarat Chandra Goswami's literary talent has not been properly evaluated and we have a lot to do in this regard," said Smti Devi.

Sabha's general secretary Jadav Chandra Sharma, while explaining Sarat Chandra Goswami's utmost dedicated effort to strengthen Sabha's organisational base, said that Late Goswami was a rare example of tremendously successful writer and organiser. In connection with Late Goswami's contribution to the field of literature, Shri Sharma said, "Asam Sahitya Sabha will take up a scheme to publish complete works of Late Goswami."

Sabha's treasurer Premnarayan Nath, cultural subcommittee working president D N Basumatary, convenor Dr Shyamal Prasad Saikia, associate convenor Dr Mrinmoy Nath, internal auditor Bishnu Deka, organiser Dimbeshwar Pathak, member Anup Kumar Talukdar, Smti Alo Nunisa Thousen, Smti Moloya Bharali, Dr Binay Kumar Nath and all the employees of Guwahati office were present at the tribute function which was conducted by Sachib Chandan Sarmah as the anchor.
